Subject: Update: Production and Transport Surcharge

Dear Valued Customer,

Consistent with our commitment to regularly review our operational inputs, we have completed our fortnightly assessment for the Production and Transport Surcharge.

The National Terminal Gate Price (NTGP) for diesel has increased since our last update, placing additional pressure on our logistics and operational input costs. As a result, Holcim is adjusting the Production and Transport Surcharge.

Effective for the upcoming fortnightly period, the Production and Transport Surcharge will be $9.67/m³. We remain committed to monitoring market conditions closely through our regular fortnightly review cycle and will provide further updates as necessary.

Surcharge Type	Rate (GST Exclusive)	Validity Period
